MAMOOK T'ZUM.

DEDICATED

To the pioneers of this great Northwest, the men and women who left their home and loved ones in the far east, south and middle west; who came by ox teams across the plains, or around Cape Horn, in sailing vessels and builded up a new country: men and women who suffered extreme hardships, surrounded by forests which were infested with savage Indians and wild animals; who felled trees, builded homes and made possible the wonderful development of this great Northwest; to the remaining few and in memory of those departed this little book is respectfully dedicated.

PREFACE.

The object in presenting to the public this little book of Chinook translations of folk lore songs is with the hope that it will interest the rising generation and thereby assist in perpetuating the life of the Chinook jargon, which has filled such an important part in the early life of the pioneers of this great Northwest.

AMERICA.

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride;
From every mountain side,
 Let freedom ring.

My native country thee,
Land of the noble free—
 Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break—
 The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
 Great God, our King!

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME, GOOD-NIGHT.

1

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day;
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy and bright,
By'n-by hard times comes a knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night!

Chorus.

Weep no more, my lady,
Oh, weep no more to-day!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky Home,
For the old Kentucky Home, far away.

2

They hunt no more, for the 'possum and the coon,
On the meadow, the hill, and the shore,
They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon,
On the bench by the old cabin door;
The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
With sorrow, where all was delight;
The time has come when the darkies have to part,
Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night!

Chorus, Weep no more, etc.

3

The head must bow and the back will have to bend,
Wher'ever the darkey may go;
A few more days and the trouble all will end,
In the field where the sugar-cane grow;
A few more days for to tote the weary load,
No matter, 'twill never be light,
A few more days till we totter on the road,
Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night.

Chorus, Weep no more, etc.

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER.

'Tis the last rose of summer,
Left blooming alone,
All her lovely companions
Are faded and gone;
No flower of her kindred,
No rosebud is nigh
To reflect back her blushes,
Or give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee thou lone one,
To pine on the stem,
Since the lovely are sleeping.
Go sleep thou with them;
Thus kindly I scatter
Thy leaves o'er the bed,
Where thy mates of the garden
Lie scentless and dead.

So soon may I follow,
When friendships decay,
And from love's shining circle
The gems drop away;
When true hearts lie withered,
And fond ones are flown,
Oh, who would inhabit
This bleak world alone?

BEN BOLT.

BEN BOLT.

1.

O! don't you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt,
Sweet Alice, with hair so brown,
She wept with delight when you gave her a smile,
And trembled with fear at your frown.
In the old church yard, in the valley, Ben Bolt,
In a corner obscure and alone,
They have fitted a slab of granite so grey,
And sweet Alice lies under the stone,
They have fitted a slab of granite so grey,
And sweet Alice lies under the stone.

2

Don't you remember the wood, Ben Bolt,
Near the green sunny slope of the hill,
Where oft we have sung neath its wide-spreading shade,
And kept time to the click of the mill,
The mill has gone to decay, Ben Bolt,
And a quiet now reigns all around;
See the old rustic porch, with its roses so sweet,
Lies scattered and fallen to the ground,
See the old rustic porch, with its roses so sweet,
Lies scattered and fallen to the ground.

3

Oh! don't you remember the school, Ben Bolt,
And the master, so kind and so true,
And the little nook, by the clear running brook,
Where we gathered the flowers as they grew?
On master's grave grows the grass, Ben Bolt,
And the running little brook is now dry,
And of all the friends who were school mates then,
There remains, Ben, but you and I,
And of all the friends who were school mates then,
There remains, Ben, but you and I.

SHELLS OF OCEAN.

1

One summer eve, with pensive thought,
I wandered on the sea-beat shore,
Where oft in heedless infant sport,
I gathered shells in days before,
I gathered shells in days before.
The splashing waves like music fell,
Responsive to my fancy wild,
A dream came o'er me like a spell,
I thought I was again a child,
A dream came o'er me like a spell,
I thought I was again, again a child.

2

I stood upon the pebbly strand -
To cull the toys, that round me lay;
But as I took them in my hand,
I threw them, one by one away,
I threw them, one by one away.
Oh! thus I said, in every stage,
By toys our fancy is beguiled;
We gather shells from youth to age,
And then we leave them like a child,
We gather shells from youth to age,
And then we leave them, leave them, like a child.

I CANNOT SING THE OLD SONGS.

1

I cannot sing the old songs
I sang long years ago,
For heart and voice would fail me,
And foolish tears would flow;
For by-gone hours come o'er my heart,
With each familiar strain,
I cannot sing the old songs,
Or dream those dreams again,
I cannot sing the old songs,
Or dream those dreams again.

2

I cannot sing the old songs,
Their charm is sad and deep:
Their melodies would waken
Old sorrows in their sleep,
And tho' all unforgotten still,
And sadly sweet they be,
I cannot sing the old songs,
They are too dear to me;
I cannot sing the old songs,
They are too dear to me.

3

I cannot sing the old songs,
For visions come again,
Of golden dreams departed
And years of weary pain,
Perhaps when earthly fetters shall
Have set my spirit free,
My voice may know the old songs,
For all eternity,
My voice may know the old songs,
For all eternity.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

1

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view!
The orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wild-wood,
And ev'ry loved spot, which my infancy knew;
The wide spreading pond, and the mill that stood by it,
The bridge and the rock where the cataract fell;
The cot of my father, the dairy house nigh it,
And e'en the rude bucket that hung in the well.

Chorus.

The old oaken bucket, the iron bound bucket,
The moss covered bucket, that hung in the well.

2

That moss covered bucket, I hail as a treasure,
For often at noon, when returned from the field,
I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
The purest and sweetest that nature can yield.
How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing,
And quick to the white pebbled bottom it fell,
And soon, with the emblem of truth overflowing,
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well.

Chorus: The old oaken bucket, etc.

3

How sweet from the green mossy brim to receive it,
As, poised on the curb, it inclined to my lips!
Not a full blushing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Tho' filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And now far removed from the loved habitation,
The tear of regret will intrusively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation,
And sighs for the bucket that hung in the well.

Chorus: The old oaken bucket, etc.

MANY ELKS ARE IN OUR TOWN.

1

Attention, friends, the Elks are here,
They've come to our town,
Greet them, with a hand of welcome;
Scatter roses all around.

Chorus.

All good friends, tie up your dogs,
While the Elks are in our town,
For they would surely scatter the herd;
If left loose running around.

2

All the people in our town,
Have good hearts for you,
While high above us flies the eagle,
Guarding you so true.

Chorus: All good friends, etc.

3

A round of pleasure, with plenty to eat,
And friends on every hand,
We wish you would return to us,
And live in every land.

Chorus: All good friends, etc.

This song was originally written, to be used as a welcome to the visiting Elks, to the Elks' Carnival, which was held in Portland, Oregon, in July, 1912, but too late for use, and was written on the 1st day of July, 1912, in the City of Roses and Birds, and dedicated to the memory of Charles E. Vivian, who years ago, gathered together his theatrical friends and perfected the organization, of what is now the great "Order of Elks."

O, RESTLESS SEA.

O, restless sea,
Still murm'ring thy sad strain,
Tell me, O tell me, shall we ne'er meet again.
Will he return, will he return?
Tell me, O tell me, will he ne'er return?
Meet him above,
Where storms can ne'er come,
There you will meet, in a bright future home.
Immortal soul,
For thee there is rest,
Yes, there is rest in that bright future home.
I've waited so long,
Will he never return?
Restless sea, take me home to that bright future home.
Is it true, shall I never more behold thee?
O, could I but meet him once more on earth.
Angels come, bear me home,
Angels come and take me home,
Take me home, O take me home,
To that bright future home,
O, restless sea, O, restless sea.

LILLY DALE.

1

"Twas a calm still night and the moon's pale light,
Shone soft o'er hill and vale,
When friends mute with grief, stood around the death bed
Of my poor lost Lilly Dale.

Chorus

O, Lilly, sweet Lilly,
Dear Lilly Dale,
Now the wild rose blossoms o'er her little green grave,
"Neath the trees in the flow'ry vale.

2

"I go," she said, "to the land of rest,
And ere my strength shall fail,
I must tell you where, near my own loved home,
You must lay poor Lilly Dale."

Chorus, O, Lilly, etc.

3

"Neath the ches'nut tree, where the wild flowers grow,
And the stream ripples forth thro' the vale,
Where the birds shall warble, their songs in spring,
There lay poor Lilly Dale."

Chorus, O, Lilly, etc

COMIN' THRO' THE RYE.

Old Scotch Air.

1

Gin a body meet a body
Comin' thro' the rye,
Gin a body kiss a body,
Need a body cry?

Chorus.

Ev'ry lassie has her laddie;
Nane, they say, has I;
Yet a' the lads they smile at me,
When comin' thro' the rye.

2

Gin a body meet a body
Comin' frae the town,
Gin a body greet a body,
Need a body frown?

Chorus, Ev'ry lassie, etc.

3

Amang the train, there is a swain,
I dearly lo'e my-sel,'
But whaur his hame, or what his name,
I dinna care to tell.

Chorus, Ev'ry lassie, etc.

CRADLE HYMN.

1

Hush my child, lie still and slumber,
Hcly angels guard thy bed,
Heavenly blessings with-out number,
Gently falling on thy head.
How much better thou'rt attended,
Than the Son of God could be;
When from heaven He descended,
And became a child like thee.

2

Soft and easy is thy cradle,
Coarse and hard thy Saviour lay;
When His birth-place was a stable,
And His softest bed was hay.
Oh, to tell the won-drous story,
How His foes abused their King;
How they killed the Lord of glory,
Makes me angry while I sing.

3

Hush, my child, I did not chide thee,
Though my song may seem so hard;
'Tis thy mother sits beside thee,
And her arms shall be thy guard,
May'st thou learn to know and fear Him,
Love and serve Him all thy days;
Then to dwell forever near Him,
Tell His love and sing His praise.

THE OLD CHURCH YARD.

1

Oh come, come with me, to the old church yard,
I well know the path through the soft green sward;
Friends slumber there, we were want to regard,
We'll trace out their names, in the old church yard.
Oh mourn not for them, their grief is o'er,
Weep not for them, they weep no more,
For deep is their sleep, though cold and hard .
Their pillow may be in the old church yard.

2

I know it seems vain when friends depart,
To breathe kind words to the broken heart;
I know that the joys of life seem marred,
When we follow our friends to the old church yard:
But were I at rest beneath yon tree,
Why should you weep, dear friends for me?
I'm wayworn and sad, Oh why then retard
The rest that I seek in the old church yard

3

Our friends linger there in the sweetest repose,
Released from the world's sad bereavements and woes;
And who would not rest with the friends they regard,
In quietude sweet in the old church yard?
We'll rest in the hope of that bright day,
When beauty shall spring from the prison of clay,
When Gabriel's voice, and the trump of the Lord,
Shall awaken the dead in the old church yard.

4

Oh! weep not for me, I am anxious to go
To that haven of rest, where tears never flow;
I fear not, to enter that dark lonely ward;
For soon shall I rise from the old church yard;
Yes, soon shall I join that heavenly band
Of glorified souls at my Saviour's right hand;
Forever to dwell in bright mansions, prepared
For the saints, who shall rise from the old church yard.

NEARER, MY GOD, TO THEE.

1

Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
E'en tho' it be a cross,
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

2

Tho' like a wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

3

There let my way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

WORK FOR THE NIGHT IS COMING.

1

Work for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2

Work for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon;
Give every flying minute,
Something to keep in store;
Work for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3

Work for the night is coming,
Under the sun-set skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work for daylight flies;
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is dark'ning,
When man's work is o'er.

ON JORDAN'S STORMY BANKS I STAND.

1

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye,
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2

Oh! the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight!

3

All o'er these wide extended plains,
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Son, forever reigns,
And scatters night away.

DOXOLOGY.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above ye heavenly hosts;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

THE PROMISED LAND.

1

I have a Father, in the Promised Land.
I have a Father, in the Promised Land.
My Father calls me, I must go,
To meet Him, in the Promised Land.

Chorus.

I'll away, I'll away, to the Promised Land,
I'll away, I'll away, to the Promised Land,
My Father calls me, I must go,
To meet Him in the Promised Land.

2

I have a crown, in the Promised Land,
I have a crown, in the Promised Land,
When Jesus calls me, I must go;
To wear it, in the Promised Land.

Chorus, I'll away,

3

I hope to meet you, in the Promised Land.
I hope to meet you, in the Promised Land.
At Jesus feet, a glorious band:
We'll praise Him, in the Promised Land.
